The Ap. is not speaking of the personal sins of men, except as they prove the sinfulness, the infection of our nature, in which all are involved by their relation to Adam, as their common head and progenitor. All sinned virtually when Adam sinned, because in him their nature became sinful.-- The death which Adam brought in is opposed to the life which Christ beBtows. That life is spiritual; hence the death which is antithetic to it is spiritual too. Every person has a sinful...
