A self-admitted neat freak, the author details the important distinctions between paper towels and dishcloths, and wishes she could conduct a class highlighting these differences and then create a test with various scenarios. Also a lover of travel, she signs up for - a house-swapping service - in hopes of a family holiday to an exotic locale, while pondering the headline Idaho: Just Like New York, Only Different. With her characteristic good-spirited, self-deprecating humor, Turner describes taking her kids to a children's art camp on the Jersey Shore and surviving a back-to-school night ice cream unsocial. Well paced, entertaining, and full of endearing stories on parenting, this new addition to Turner's popular series will leave readers looking forward to the next installment.
