SAMSON'S WALLS

Paul Mould Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Samson's Walls, Jud Niremberg, In Canaan, where Philistines and Hebrews vie for dominance, it is important to know one's place. Samson is isolated in his, trapped by unusual rules and expectations. He was promised to his parents by an angel, destined to grow into a great man and make his people strong. Raised with Philistines for playmates, he aches to be a part of their world. At marrying age, he chooses a Philistine wife and, when his new family denies him the acceptance he craves, he releases years of frustration and loneliness in blood. Samson goes into hiding, seeking to make peace with his wife's people. Soon other young Hebrews join him with their own reasons for war. Even while longing for peace, he leads a growing army. He is trapped by his successes and grows in fame, wealth and power, taking enemy territory. As always, he is without close friends and alone. He tastes love with Delilah, the prostitute-queen of a village in no-man's land. She is the opposite of the clannish divisions he hates, with unclear ethnic origins and leading a mixed community. Philistine spies gather around them and the couple are ensnared in Samson's fight to fulfil his own heart's need despite his tribe's and religion's expectations.
