Meresin is the fallen angel that Ceila abhors. He's rude, demanding and serves the Dark One. He loathes humans and considers them to be inferior to angels. This means that even though she's only part human, he finds her objectionable at first. Despite their intense dislike of each other, they are forced to be together by the action of demons, and their feelings begin to change. Will he ignore her humanness? Can she overlook his ruined nature and dark ways? When an attraction develops between them, should they forget their previous hatred and help one another? Meresin becomes her rescuer and Ceila is grateful for his aid. So is it possible for love to sweep away their former antagonism? This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
