FAME AND MISFORTUNE: BROKEN HEARTS BROKEN RULES 2015

Penskills Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The beautiful game! It s should be called the despicable game! Max Rawlings.A compelling story of romance and passion, against a background of skulduggery and bribery in modern day sport, particularly football s Premier League. This has proved to be a very topical subject in the light of recent exposures of corruption in various fields of sport, especially the shocking FIFA revelations! Narrative explores the backgrounds, fates, fortunes and love interests, both romantic and explicit, of all characters, linking them intrinsically in the storyline and dramatic ending. The world is shocked and saddened as news breaks about the unfathomable death of the much loved, handsome Max Rawlings: footballing legend, fashion icon, media phenomenon and hero of Premier League s Redthorn Rangers FC. Max s grief stricken wife, Kathie, vows to disprove the verdict of suicide. She has an ally in Bernard Cummings, a notorious sports journalist and TV pundit, who has long nurtured a burning ambition to expose corruption in the modern game. Kathie, beautiful and talented, achieves personal success as an interior designer.Her teenage affair with Max, which claimed her virginity, ends in tears when she reads a kiss and tell story in a Sunday tabloid, citing Max. A few years later they have an emotional reunion and marry in the glare of publicity. They enjoy an excessively privileged lifestyle as famous glitterati celebrities, but live in fear of their young daughter being kidnapped. Chris Faraday, Max s best friend, had a hard upbringing with a dysfunctional single mother. Against all odds, Chris becomes a player for London s Premier League football club, Stampford United. His out of control life heads in a downward spiral of drink, drugs and gambling,...
