To think without speaking, would seem an impossibility; to speak to ourself alone, an absurdity. To gain knowledge to rest forever with ourself, would be like making one's bed forever on a golden rock. To plan and propose any improvement by art and industry to be shared by no one, would be action without an end - the building of ships without commerce, and cities without inhabitants, the sowing of fields never to be reaped, the moulding of beautiful forms with none to admire them, the singing of epics and no hearts to be moved upon. And thought itself would claim the critical judgment, the aid, and inspiration of other thought; and the hand of industry seek to...
